

Stream No. 17 (2 notices)

Head Fidalgo Bay

This stream is split at mouth, with water enough combined to make 40 feet wide and 6 inches deep.

Probably accessible for fish from 1/4 to 1/2 mile.

Has good gravel and sand bottom. In one place stream runs directly away from the bay and forms a lake 400 or 600 feet long.

1926: No visit. Estimate allowed for.

1927: " " " " "

Stream No. 18 (1 notice)

N.W. head Fidalgo Bay.

The large stream here is 60 feet wide and 18 inches deep.

Glacier. 2 clear-water streams on east side; are each 12 feet wide and 5 inches deep.

Have good gravel bottoms.

1926: No visit. Estimate allowed for.

1927: " " " " "

Stream No. 19 (2 notices)

North side Fidalgo Bay.

Width: 10 feet

Depth: 5 inches

Has good gravel around mouth. Has a high falls. 600-foot stream bare at low tide. A big tide goes up to falls.

1926: No visit. Estimate allowed for.

1927: " " " " "

Stream No. 20 (2 notices)

Head of Fish Bay.

Split at mouth into 2 parts:

Width: 15 feet also 21 feet

Depth: 10 inches 4 inches

Bottom a good mixture of fine and coarse gravel. At low tide there should be a fine gravel bar with fresh water over it, and not more than 18 inches deep at high of salt water. The valley looks good for a long fish stream.

1926: No visit. Estimate allowed for.

1927: " " " " "